SENATE RESOLUTION 8667

By Senator Schoesler

WHEREAS, The Washington Agriculture and Forestry Education Foundation, incorporated in 1977, established and administers a leadership-development program for Washington's agriculture, forestry, and fishing industries; and

WHEREAS, Participants in the AgForestry Leadership Program embark on a challenging two-year track that blends a dozen in-state seminars with study and travel at the national and international levels, with the goal of producing strong, able, informed leaders who not only excel in their chosen professions but also possess critical communication, public policy, and collaboration skills; and

WHEREAS, David Roseleip, a Montana native and Montana State University graduate from a longtime farming family, was working for Farm Credit Banks in Spokane when, in 1978, he was selected as one of the 30 participants in AgForestry Leadership Class 1, which graduated in 1980; and

WHEREAS, Dave Roseleip became the third president of the AgForestry Foundation in 1984 and served in that capacity for the next 30 years, during which time he also took on the duties of program director beginning with Leadership Class 6; and

WHEREAS, Dave Roseleip has overseen the recruitment and selection of Leadership Classes 7 through 37, presided over the graduation of 31 of the 35 AgForestry leadership classes, and seen the foundation grow to receive annual support from more than 750 paid members; and

WHEREAS, In the mid-1980s, Dave Roseleip, along with other graduates, helped form what is now known as the Alumni Council for the AgForestry Leadership Program, which provides networking and continuing-education opportunities to the more than 1,000 AgForestry graduates; and

WHEREAS, His passion and dedication for the development of effective leaders led Dave Roseleip to co-found, in 1986, the International Association of Programs for Agricultural Leadership, an international consortium of agriculture, forestry, and rural leadership programs in the United States and countries abroad; and

WHEREAS, Dave Roseleip has generously shared his deep well of knowledge by also serving on the boards of Farming and the Environment, Pacific Northwest Farm Forum, Washington Biodiversity Council, and the Washington Agriculture Council; and

WHEREAS, Dave Roseleip will retire from AgForestry effective June 30, 2015, yet he will remain active by raising funds for the foundation's endowment fund, all while spending time with his wife Jan, their five children, and many grandchildren;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate congratulate David Roseleip on an entire career spent training two generations of leaders, who include past and present state senators and representatives, city and county commissioners, small and large-acreage producers, farmers, ranchers, and proprietors; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to David Roseleip and to the AgForestry Foundation.

WHEREAS, Harassment because of sexual orientation or gender expression has an impact on student academic performance, such that lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students who experienced high levels of verbal harassment because of their sexual orientation or gender expression reported a grade point average nearly one-half grade lower than that of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students who experienced low levels of such harassment; and

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced members of the Washington State Poetry Out Loud, Alex Hanesworth, a junior from Anacortes High School; Gabriella Sipe, a senior from Olympia High School who were seated in the gallery.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Ranker: "I want to congratulate Alex and her mother Marilyn who is also here today for your accomplishments. To compete against 22,000 people and to win it is just remarkable. You have made obviously your mother but also the city of Anacortes, everybody in Northern Washington State and the entire state of Washington extremely proud. Congratulations to you and we look forward to you bringing home the next National Championship and we'll hear about that later this month. Congratulations to you and your mother."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: "I wondered if I could read a short poem in celebration."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "I think it would be appropriate."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: "Thank you Mr. President. This is by Lucille Clifton, it's entitled 'Won't you celebrate with me'.
 Won't you celebrate with me what I've shaped into?
 A kind of life I had no model,
 Born in Babylon, both non-white and women,
 What did I see to be except myself?
 I made it up, here on this bridge between star shine and clay
 my one hand holding tight my other hand,
 Come celebrate with me that everyday something has tried to kill me and has failed.
 Congratulations"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fraser: "Well thank you Mr. President. Well, I too am as proud as I can be that the runner up, the number two person out of 22,000 students is from Legislative District No. 22 which I represent. I am proud of her, I know our whole community is proud of her and the state is. 22,000 students participated and she came in number two and I complement her and all the students who did very well in this competition. This is really a great program and I'd like to also compliment the states Art Commission that runs it. This is a program that helps students develop appreciation for literature which is so important in life, helps them build self-confidence, and helps them to develop their public speaking skills. So, who knows if some of them will be on the floor reciting their own poetry one of these days? So, congratulations to all and also to the State of Washington because Washington State as a whole came in number three in the nation in student participation. This is outstanding for our state."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McAuliffe: "Well, in speaking today of Ana Cauce who is the University of Washington Chief, not Chief of Staff as I misspoke."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "I believe she's Chancellor."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McAuliffe: "She is but they call her Chief and that's why I, but she is the Chancellor so I just wanted to correct myself."
